

Seeing Jesus

“Moses saw Him as a Prophet
greater than his brethren.

Joshua saw Him as the Captain of the Lord's Host.

Isaiah saw Him as the Lamb
before the Shearers.

Jeremiah saw Him as the Righteous Branch
from David's vineyard.

Daniel saw Him as the Stone hewn
out of the mountain without hands.

The Shepherds saw Him as a Babe in a manger.

The Scribes saw Him as a Teacher in the Temple.

The Roman Soldiers saw Him as another
zealous martyr from Galilee.

But we can see Him as Christ,
the Suffering Savior who lived,
and died, and lives again and who calls us to come,
to salvation and then to service.”
