Search for wisdom and seek understanding,

 Give it up! Give it up! The Load you're bearing!
 You can't go on in a life of wasted years.

Wasted years, wasted years, oh, how foolish,
 As you walk on in darkness and fears;
 Turn around, turn around, God is calling,
 He's calling you from a life of wasted years”.

1. Are you committed to your journey into grace so that you will not turn back to the world, the flesh, or the devil?
Yes _____ No _____

Special Note.

When D.L. Moody was visiting England he heard Henry Varley say, "The world has yet to see what God will do with a man who is fully and wholly consecrated to the Holy Spirit." Moody would later comment, "He said 'a man.'" He did not say a 'great man' nor 'a learned man' nor a 'rich man' but simply 'a man.' I am a man, and it lies within the man himself whether he will or will not make that entire and full consecration. I will try my utmost to be that man" (Source Unknown).

Scriptural Memorization

Ruth 3:12 And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.

“Jesus, lover of my soul,
 Let me to Thy bosom fly,
 While the nearer waters roll,
 While the tempest still is high:
 Hide me, O my Savior, hide,
 Till the storm of life is past;
 Safe into the haven guide;
 O receive my soul at last.

Other refuge have I none,
 Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
 Leave, oh, leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me.
 All my trust on Thee is stayed,
 All my help from Thee I bring;
 Cover my defenseless head
 With the shadow of Thy wing.

Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
 More than all in Thee I find;
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick and lead the blind.
 Just and holy is Thy name,
 I am all unrighteousness;
 Vile and full of sin I am,
 Thou art full of truth and grace.

Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
 Grace to cover all my sin;
 Let the healing streams abound;
 Make and keep me pure within.
 Thou of life the fountain art,
 Freely let me take of Thee;
 Spring Thou up within my heart,
 Rise to all eternity”.

Supplemental Material

“Moab (of his father), Mo'abites. Moab was the son of Lot's eldest daughter, the progenitor of the Moabites. Zoar was the cradle of the race of Lot. From this center the brother tribes spread themselves. The Moabites first inhabited the rich highlands which crown the eastern side of the chasm of the Dead Sea, extending as far north as the mountain of Gilead, from which country they expelled the Emims, the original inhabitants, Deuteronomy 2:11, but they themselves were afterward driven southward by the warlike Amorites, who had crossed the Jordan, and were confined to the country south of the river Arnon, which formed their northern boundary. Numbers 21:13; Judges 11:18.

The territory occupied by Moab at the period of its greatest extent, before the invasion of the Amorites, divided itself naturally into three distinct and independent portions: —

- (1) The enclosed corner or canton south of the Arnon was the "field of Moab." Ruth 1:1,2,6, etc.
- (2) The more open rolling country north of the Arnon, opposite Jericho, and up to the hills of Gilead, was the "land of Moab." Deuteronomy 1:5; 32:49, etc.
- (3) The sunk district in the tropical depths of the Jordan valley. Numbers 22:1, etc. The Israelites, in entering the Promised Land, did not pass through the Moabites, Judges 11:18, but conquered the Amorites, who occupied the country from which the Moabites had been so lately expelled.

After the conquest of Canaan the relations of Moab with Israel were of a mixed character, sometimes warlike and sometimes peaceable. With the tribe of Benjamin they had at least one severe struggle, in union with their kindred the Ammonites. Judges 3:12-30. The story of Ruth, on the other hand, testifies to the existence of a friendly intercourse between Moab and Bethlehem, one of the towns of Judah.

By his descent from Ruth, David may be said to have had Moabite blood in his veins. He committed his parents to the protection of the king of Moab, when hard pressed by Saul. 1 Samuel 22:3, 4. But here all friendly relations stop forever.

The next time the name is mentioned is in the account of David's war, who made the Moabites tributary. 2 Samuel 8:2; 1 Chronicles 18:2.

At the disruption of the kingdom, Moab seems to have fallen to the northern realm. At the death of Ahab, the Moabites refused to pay tribute and asserted their independence, making war upon the kingdom of Judah. 2 Chronicles 22:1. As a natural consequence of the late events, Israel, Judah and Edom united in an attack on Moab, resulting in the complete overthrow of the Moabites. Falling back into their own country, they were followed and their cities and farms destroyed.

Finally, shut up within the walls of his own capital, the king, Mesha, in the sight of the thousands who covered the sides of that vast amphitheater, killed and burnt his child as a propitiatory sacrifice to the cruel gods of his country. Isaiah, chs. 15; 16; 25:10-12, predicts the utter annihilation of the Moabites; and they are frequently denounced by the subsequent prophets” (Smith's Bible Dictionary).
